The Sommelier's Atlas of Taste Jun 18 2022 Winner of the prestigious André Simon Drink Book Award The first definitive reference book to describe, region-by-region, how the great wines of Europe should taste. This will be the go-to guide for aspiring sommeliers, wine aficionados who want to improve their blind tasting skills, and amateur enthusiasts looking for a straightforward and visceral way to understand and describe wine. In this seminal addition to the wine canon, noted experts Rajat Parr and Jordan Mackay share everything they've learned in their decades of tasting wine. The result is the most in-depth study of the world's greatest wine regions ever published. There are books that describe the geography of wine regions. And there are books that describe the way basic wines and grapes should taste. But there are no books that describe the intricacies of the way wines from various subregions, soils, and appellations should taste. Now, for the first time ever, you can learn about the differences between wines from the 7 grand crus and 40 premier crus of Chablis, or the terroirs in Barolo, Champagne, and Bordeaux. Paying attention to styles, winemakers, soils, and the most cutting-edge of trends, this book explains how to understand the wines of the world not in the classical way, but in the modern way--appellation by appellation, soil by soil, technique by technique--making it an essential reference and instant classic.

Nouvel atlas mondial du vin May 25 2020 A sa parution, il y a plus de vingt ans, la première édition de L'Atlas mondial du vin fut saluée comme un événement par l'autorité viticole suprême : l'Institut national des appellations d'origine des vins et eaux-de-vie. Jugé inégalable par la critique du monde entier, ce livre a été traduit dans une douzaine de langues, et reste l'ouvrage de référence pour tous les connaisseurs - professionnels du vin ou simples amateurs. Cette quatrième édition, entièrement révisée, actualisée et augmentée, prend en compte l'évolution rapide de l'industrie viticole et du goût des consommateurs - le défi de l'Europe face à la percée des pays neufs ; l'entrée remarquée sur la scène mondiale de vins et de régions jusque-là non officiellement reconnus ; l'importance des nouvelles mesures législatives ; l'affinement des méthodes d'élaboration lié à la demande croissante de qualité. Il existe aussi un rapport étroit entre la géographie et le vin : son style, son goût et son arôme sont largement déterminés par le vignoble dont il est issu. 180 cartes sont ici réunies qui indiquent précisément la localisation du vignoble, sa taille, la qualité de son sol, son ensoleillement, etc. Ces cartes, elles aussi actualisées, permettent de comprendre les différences entre les terroirs et révèlent tous les détails de l'environnement qui contribuent à façonner les grands crus ou les vins de table. 36 d'entre elles sont entièrement nouvelles et couvrent des zones qui sont récemment parvenues - ou revenues - à un haut niveau de qualité. Le Nouvel Atlas mondial du vin conduit ainsi les passionnés d'un vignoble à l'autre, dans tous les points du globe où naissent les bons vins, et partout où se préparent ceux que nous pourrions goûter d'ici à l'an 2000.

How to Taste Jul 07 2021 Offers a guide to vintages, grape varieties, and wine appreciation.

Hugh Johnson on Wine Aug 20 2022 'On Wine-which brings together dozens of "articles, reviews, and introductions," from titles as various as Vogue, Decanter, The Sunday Times Wine Club newsletter Wine Times, and the journal you have in your hands, as well as snippets from Johnson's bestselling books-has many moments where the writing transcends the ostensible subject matter.' The World of Fine Wine One of the world's great authorities on wine, Hugh Johnson has been writing on the subject (among others) for almost six decades. This selection chronicles his personal take on developments that have revolutionised the industry for half a century and more. Johnson's prose describes as no one else can the endlessly fascinating characters and landscapes of the wine world. He tells of setting sail with sybarites and braving the perfect storm, he debates at length the Pleasure Principle, lip-smacks through decadent dinners, teaches and learns in Tokyo and files breathless dispatches from Beijing. He bids a poignant farewell to the loveliest vintages, decries peremptory judgement and urges the Slow Food philosophy; falls in love (again), this time with Tokaji, tells warm winter tales through a vintage port and sets out a summer picnic at the source of the Seine - all the while dryly annotating the scribbles of his younger self with contemporary marginal hindsights. This thoughtful, illuminating collection will delight not only lovers of wine, food, history and travel but also anyone who enjoys the intoxicating power of words.
